Relations With Germany Severed.

Washington Officials Still "Hope For Peace," But Every Preparation Is Being Made For Conflict.

President Asks Congress to Clear Decks For Action in Case War Is Necessary—Break with Austria-Hungary and All German Allies Probable.

President Wilson has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany and warned the Kaiser that ruthless sacrifice of American lives and rights means war.

Similar action is waiting for Austria when she notifies this government that she joins in the campaign of unrestricted submarine warfare. The President made formal announcement of this action to the country and to the world at a joint session of Congress.

Passports have been handed to Count von Bernstorff, Ambassador Gerard with all his staff and all American consuls have been ordered out of Germany. All German consuls in the United States are expected to withdraw that the severance of relations may be complete. American diplomatic interests in Berlin have been turned over to Spain; German diplomatic interests in the United States have been taken over by Switzerland. Foreign diplomatic interests which the United States had in charge in Germany have been turned over to various neutrals.

Two years of diplomatic negotiation, marked with frequent crisis, and attended with the loss of more than 200 American lives on the high seas, have culminated in an act which in all the history of all the world has always led to war. Every agency of the American government has been set in motion to protect the country against acts of German sympathizers. These moves are of necessity being kept secret.

With the notice of severance of diplomatic relations the United States sent to Berlin a demand for the immediate release of 64 Americans taken from ships captured by German raiders in the South Atlantic.

At the request of the President, Congress immediately after hearing his address began work on new laws framed by the Department of Justice to check conspiracies and plots against the United States which can not now be reached under existing statutes.

The question of conveying American merchant ships through the submarine blockade has been taken up and is being considered as one of the next moves by this government.

Soon after Count von Bernstorff's passports arrived, United States secret service men threw a guard about the Ambassador and his suite to make certain that the hospitality of the United States is not violated while he remains on American soil. The status of Count Tarnowski, the Austrian Ambassador, was undecided, although he called at the State Department to arrange for presenting his credentials to President Wilson.

For months, ever since relations with Germany became acute, there have been ominous signs of threatened activities of German sympathizers and disloyal Americans if diplomatic relations were broken off. The administration has not been unkind of these. Various branches of the government have informed themselves on the subject far more completely than might be thought. Officials express themselves as satisfied that they will be able to cope with the situation. In the army and navy, and in the citizenship generally, officials realize that the composite character of American nationality makes it difficult not to find some persons who will express sympathy with the land of their birth.

The attempt to sink the torpedo boat Jacob Jones at Philadelphia is recognized as an instance of some of the things which may be expected, but on the whole all the agencies of the government believe they have made preparations to meet such exigencies or are prepared to meet them as they arise.

The breaking off of relations came with a crash, despite the fact that it had been discussed, and practically determined upon Friday night. The President returned from his night conference with the Senators determined that a break in relations was the only act "consistent with the dignity and the honor of the United States." He worked most of the night preparing his address to Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—The sending home of Von Bernstorff and the calling home of Gerard, the ominous message which the President was forced to carry to Congress, does not necessarily mean war. The number of those in and out of Congress who believe it will not, even under the circumstances, is surprisingly large. But the one word, "war," is on every lip, nevertheless.

Official and civil Washington is sobered, but determined, no what the expected has come about. In the gravest period known to the nation since the day war was declared on Spain, the hope is yet held out that no actual war will follow the President's address to Congress if the Chief Executive can avoid it.

But, however, should an overt act of such character as this government cannot ignore occur, with no diplomatic channel open through which to take it up, no way will be left open except that of reprisal and that will mean war.

Communications continue to pour into the White House, and they are about equally divided in tone, some demanding strict accountability with all that goes with it, of Germany, the others urging the President to stand firm for peace.

A telegram received in Paris from Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Chisholm, at New York, stated that they had temporarily abandoned their ocean trip to London, England, and their future home in South Africa, on account of the threatening war situation, and the uncertainty of securing passports from the beleaguered countries. Mrs. Chisholm was formerly Miss Ethel Baldwin, of Paris, her marriage to Mr. Chisholm taking place in Paris recently. Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm had booked passage for Liverpool, on the Holland-American steamer, the Ryndham, intending to visit in England a month before proceeding to their home in Rhodesia, South Africa. The German threat of submarining all neutral vessels caused them to defer their trip, at least for a while.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Besides breaking off diplomatic relations with Germany, President Wilson has made a bold stroke to range the moral force of all other neutral countries along with that of the United States in the interest of peace.

The President has suggested to all other neutrals that they break off diplomatic relations with Germany as the United States has done, and he has instructed all American diplomats in those countries to report immediately how the suggestion is received.

This was the only known development of first importance which came out of a day of tense waiting which followed the actual announcement of the break with Germany.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Great surprise exists over the fact that neither press reports nor official dispatches have indicated that Ambassador Gerard has asked for his passports. His instructions were sent both by cable and wireless and there is no disposition to doubt that he has received them and acted accordingly.

It is assumed that the most rigid censorship is being maintained in Germany.

BERLIN, February 4.—Germany today acceded to the American demands for the immediate release of the Americans taken from the ships sunk by the German raider in the Atlantic and brought to a German port aboard the steamer Yarrowdale.

WASHINGTON, February 5.—Continuation of diplomatic relations between the United States and Austria-Hungary was declared here to rest on a very slender thread with rapid exchange of views taking place in an eleventh hour hope of saving an apparent hopeless situation.

Two reasons, the condition in which it would leave prisoners whose interests are now cared for by American diplomats, and the utility of any further purely formal steps, make officials loath to extend the break with Germany to Austria. American's moral protest against Germany's policy of sea ruthlessness is felt to be adequately driven home by the serious step short of war that this country should take.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST ANOTHER BREAK IN PIPE LINE.

If plans that are now being worked out by the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co., turn out successfully, it will be next to impossible for another such complete shut-off of the natural gas supply to Paris and other towns in Central Kentucky, such as occurred several days ago.

The company has announced at all its offices that it is preparing to lay two permanent gas mains across the point over State Creek, in Montgomery county, where the recent break occurred, converting the two lines into the main trunk on both sides of the creek, and with a valve which in case of a break or washout on either line, might be used to turn the flow into the other. The pipes will be screw-jointed in the most stable and permanent manner, and laid within a concrete breakwater. Permanent repairs have been completed on the line and the connection with the temporary line was made without the slightest inconvenience to the patrons of the gas company.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

BOURBON HOUSE—FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2.

The Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company sold 71,725 pounds of tobacco for $15,357.05, an average of $21.41. The Paris House sold 115,315 pounds for $22,405.53, average $19.41. The quality of this floor was poor.

The highest average of the day was made by Mrs. W. B. Woodford and Bristow, who sold 3,505 pounds for an average of $30.73. Two baskets of this contained 155 and 180 pounds, which brought $50 and $52, the highest price of the season for any basket bought by any factory buyer.

Some of the averages are as follows: Grant Galloway sold 2,350 pounds, average $26.93; Mrs. W. B. Woodford & Bristow sold 3,505 pounds, average $30.73; J. W. Knox sold 1,315 pounds, average $24.70; Collins & Coons sold 16,275 pounds, average $20.66; Caywood & Harding sold 8,295 pounds, average $22.92; Caywood & Fletcher sold 6,175 pounds, average $22.04; Wagoner & Klung sold 6,815 pounds, average $21.12; Clay & Herrington sold 5,990 pounds, average $23.86; Woodford & Son sold 2,845 pounds, average $24.17; Jones & Mason sold 2,140 pounds, average $23.53; Curt Duncan sold 2,445 pounds, average $21.14; D. B. Gaitskill sold 5,310 pounds, average $19.85; Gay & Martin sold 9,395 pounds, average $20.32; Chappell, Ashcraft & Chappell sold 6,935 pounds, average $20.04; R. E. Bedford sold 2,560 pounds, average $21.15; C. W. Peed sold 3,675 pounds, average $19.42; Soper & Wasson sold 7,565 pounds, average $20.71; Talbot Bros. & Robinson sold 2,785 pounds, average $21.69; Allen & Craft sold 3,785 pounds, average $25.06; Talbot Bros. & Feedback sold 2,970 pounds, average $20.66; Wagoner & E. Mons sold 3,345 pounds, average $20.91; Thos. Mitchell sold 5,725 pounds, average $20.47; Thos. Mitchell sold 2,890 pounds, average $20.32; Ferguson & Maher sold 2,085 pounds, average $12.79; Wright & Watkins sold 3,440 pounds, average $19.76; Wright & Morris sold 2,660 pounds, average $20.82; T. B. Brannock sold 1,255 pounds, average $20.38; Henry Ingles sold 2,445 pounds, average $19.27.

The Independent House did not furnish a report of their Friday's sale for publication.

Mr. T. C. Asbury, of Nicholas county, purchased the entire crop of tobacco grown on the farm of Mr. Lettison Vimont, near Millersburg. The crop comprised 37,000 pounds, and was bought at the barn by Mr. Asbury for 25 cents per pound, straight. Mr. Asbury is selling it on the Paris market at an advanced price.

Ford & Co. have on exhibition in the show windows of their hardware store on Main street, a remarkable specimen of "freak tobacco" that has been attracting a great deal of attention. The tobacco, which is of the red burley type, was taken from a crop grown on the farm of Mr. Wm. S. Hall, near Kiserston.

The tobacco has grown in a sort of "Siamese twins" growth, with one stem from which two perfect leaves have grown, both joined by a weile-like growth to about one-third of their length. The lower parts of the leaves are free from each other only the stem holding them together at the top.

In the sale held at the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Thursday, one of the finest crops sold, and one that received a great deal of attention from the bidders, was that of Mr. I. D. Thompson, of near Paris. Mr. Thompson's crop comprised 12,795 lbs., and brought an average of $25.72. It was pronounced by experts to have been one of the best crops raised in the county during the season and its unusual average, near the $30 mark, brought it in far ahead of what seemed to be more promising crops.

The following Bourbon county growers disposed of their crops on the Lexington market: Lucien C. Terrill, 6,720 pounds at $22.26; John Lyons, 2,390 pounds at $22.05; J. H. Bell, 8,230 pounds at $23.35; Clift & Plumkett, 6,245 pounds at $21.27.

FORMER NEWSPAPER MAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Mr. John Robert Garret, aged eighty-one, known to his familiars in the newspaper business many years ago as "Commodore," was burned to death when his clothes caught fire from an open grate at his home in Mt. Sterling, Saturday.

Mr. Garret was a pioneer in the newspaper business, for many years being owner and editor of the Georgetown Enterprise, a weekly publication. He was formerly Police Judge in Mt. Sterling, and was County Clerk of Montgomery county. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Gay, of Clark county, and Miss Nancy Garret, of Sterling. Mr. Garret was well known to the old-r generation of Paris people, he having often been a visitor here. The body was taken to Georgetown, where it was interred in the Georgetown Cemetery beside the body of his wife.

FEBRUARY COURT DAY.

Paris has seldom worn a more desolate appearance on "County Court Day" than it did yesterday. There was no stock on the market, no trading, and the few farmers who did "come to town" came mostly to renew their supplies, to hear the latest war news, and then hurried back to the comfort of their own firesides. It was a dreary, desolate day, the intense cold and bitterly cold wind driving everyone from the streets to shelter. There was little or no business transacted in any line.

COLDEST WEATHER OF SEASON HITS THIS SECTION.

It seems the weather man is determined to give the Bluegrass section of the State the severest weather he has in stock. "Cold wave, with temperature falling to eight below zero by night," was the warning sent out Friday morning from the Weather Bureau at Washington and posted here at noon of the same day. And it came with a vengeance.

The people of the Bluegrass had just recovered from the visitation of the heaviest snowfall known in many years, and the uncomfortable effects of a two-days' shortage in the natural gas pressure, due to a break in the pipe line, but as the comic pictures have it, "The worst was yet to come." And it came.

The mercury began its descent early Friday morning, remaining for a considerable time stationary, but Friday afternoon it began to tumble into the cellar, and by night had passed the zero mark. All day a bitterly cold wind blew, piercing the stoutest clothing and freezing the very marrow in one's bones. Some thermometers marked four below zero at ten o'clock Friday night, and on Saturday morning the readings varied from six to seven below, approaching very close to the prediction sent out by the Weather Bureau. All the discomforts attending such a sudden cold wave were experienced by Paris people.

Frozen water pipes and cold rooms were the rule rather than the exception. School children suffered greatly from the cold, and those whose business compelled them to be outdoors a great deal were muffled to the ears and even then complained of the biting cold. Unsheltered stock in the country suffered greatly and it is likely there were many losses of animals by death from exposure. In the city many housekeepers kept their natural gas fires going all night. Windows in homes and business houses were coated with frost until they resembled the work of some master painter of snow scenes.

The weather man promised fair and warmer weather for Sunday, but the machinery slipped a cog, and instead of a return to warmer weather, today was one of the most disagreeable of the winter. Snow began falling early in the morning, whipped by a fierce, high wind that cut like a knife driving the snow in the face of pedestrians with the force of a Texas blizzard, which, indeed, it resembled very closely. The temperature again took a tumble, and by Sunday night the mercury was again close to the zero mark. The fierce gale howled and blew all day long, piling the snow in drifts and causing the streets to be deserted.

Yesterday the weather clerk got real angry and sent the mercury tumbling down to six below zero. Two men who had driven in from North Middletown came in to the Fordham Hotel with their ears frostbitten, and were taken to the office of a physician nearby where they received medical attention. One of them said the worst was yet to come, as he had to go to Danville, and then drive twelve miles in the country.

Frozen water pipes and lessened gas pressure caused general discomfort in households and business houses, and employees shivered and shook as the intense cold pierced them. The temperature remained nearly stationary all day. The intense cold caused great suffering among the poor classes, who were ill prepared to meet the sudden drop in temperature. Charitable people did all they could to relieve the distress, but still many suffered.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democrats of the 28th Senatorial District of Kentucky:

In announcing my candidacy for Senator in this district, composed of the counties of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery, I am mindful of the responsibility as well as the high honor which comes with such a preferment. The interests of the people of this State can be best served, in my opinion, by:

First: A revision of our present system of taxation, which would cause all property, both real and personal, to bear its just proportion of taxes. An increase in the present tax on whisky and the imposition of a tax on coal and oil properties would be a substantial step in this direction, and the additional revenue from these sources would render possible a reduction of the present burdensome tax on real property.

Secondly: The submission of an amendment to the Constitution which would prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. The people should not be denied their obvious rights to settle this question at the earliest possible time.

Thirdly: The most rigid economy in the administration of public affairs and the appropriations for the various State institutions, and for the strictest accounting for the expenditure of same.

If I am elected, I pledge myself to a faithful discharge of my obligations as your Senator.

Very respectfully,

ABRAM RENICK.

GOVERNOR STANLEY CALLS A SPECIAL SESSION.

Gov. A. O. Stanley has issued a call for the General Assembly to convene at Frankfort, Wednesday, February 14, for the "sole purpose of considering the subject of revenue and taxation."

This is the first time in twelve years that the Kentucky General Assembly has been convened in special session. Gov. W. O. Bradley called it to elect a United States Senator, and Gov. J. C. W. Beckham called it twice, in 1900 to pass an election law and in 1905 to locate the new Capitol. Neither Gov. A. E. Wilson nor Gov. James B. McCreary, whose terms intervened, called a special session.

The session automatically is limited to sixty days, which excludes Sunday and legal holidays, Gov. Stanley was advised by Attorney General M. Logan. This would make it adjourn, if it did not finish sooner, about April 25.

The proclamation issued by the Governor follows:

"To the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

"The State for a number of years has faced a continually increasing deficit in the treasury, and there are now outstanding and unpaid, several millions of State warrants bearing interest at 5 per cent. per annum.

"The people of this Commonwealth, realizing the pressing need of a readjustment of their laws relating to revenue and taxation upon modern lines, have twice voted favorably on an amendment to their constitution authorizing such legislation. The last General Assembly adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to devise a new system of revenue and taxation for the State to be submitted at a regular or special session to be called for that purpose. This commission has conducted its investigation and formally made its report in conformity to the provisions of the resolution.

"In the rush of business at a regular session of the Legislature, where a multitude of measures are introduced and considered, it can hardly be hoped that so vital and complex a question as the revenue and taxing system of the State can be given the consideration it properly deserves. The people of the State must realize that the present condition of the fiscal affairs of the State is unsound and demands immediate relief. It presents in my opinion, an occasion within the meaning of the constitution authorizing the Governor in convening the General Assembly in extraordinary session.

TAXATION EXCLUSIVE CONSIDERATION.

"In consideration of these conditions, and in accordance with the power vested in me to convene the General Assembly on extraordinary occasions, I, as Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, issue this, my proclamation, convening you in extraordinary session at the seat of government in Frankfort, at twelve o'clock noon, on Wednesday, February 14, 1917, for the sole purpose of considering the subject of revenue and taxation.

BURGLARS BUSY AGAIN; OFFICER JUDY LANDS ONE.

Following the burglaries of last week, when the business houses of Bruce Holladay, Albert Antone and Owsley & Harris were visited, and sums of money taken, the thieves continued their depredations, visiting the Bourbon Lumber Co., where they effected an entrance by breaking the glass on a window sash and throwing the catch. They were unrewarded for their trouble, and departed empty-handed. The grocery store of Curtis Henry & Co., adjoining the lumber yard, was also visited, the same night. Here the intruders broke a glass in the front door and threw the bolt and fastenings on the lock. They rifled the cash drawer, securing a small sum in cash, principally old coins which Mr. Henry had collected as souvenirs. The business house of Mr. Custis Talbott, on Eighth street, also received a call from the prowlers, who got away with a small sum of money that had been left in the cash drawer as change to be used in the following days' business. The thieves seemed to be looking for ready cash at all the places they visited, as nothing else was missed. Their methods of operation were the same at all the places visited.

The police with very little in the way of a clue to work on, kept trying to land the thieves. Patrolman Judy Garrett, colored, who had just been released from the Frankfort Reformatory, where he had been serving a term for housebreaking in Fayette county, had some coins in his possession closely corresponding to the description of those taken from the cash drawer at the Curtis Henry & Co. grocery. After a long and diligent search the officer found his man in Clayville, where he was placed under arrest. A search revealed a sack containing a large number of pennies, and other coins, which were afterward identified as the property of Curtis Henry and Bruce Holladay. Garrett's shoes exactly fitted tracks in the snow at the store of Mr. Talbott, and he was unable to give a satisfactory explanation of his whereabouts on the nights the burglaries occurred. He was lodged in the Paris to await trial.

ing the subject of revenue and taxation. You will, therefore, in accordance with this proclamation, assemble in such session at the State Capitol, at Frankfort, on the day and date above mentioned, to consider the subject of revenue and taxation, exclusively.

Given under my hand, this the third day of February, 1917, and in the one hundred and twenty-fifth year of the Commonwealth.

The Problems of Retail Trade.

The development of a force of salespeople, capable of rendering intelligent and competent service to the public, is perhaps the biggest problem the merchant has to deal with. It exists just the same in a store having but one or two clerks as in the bigger establishments. Every one of these concerns is a business school, in which constant training in good salesmanship is proceeding. As a result there is no place where the public gets a more intelligent and helpful service than in a town of the type of this.

To be a good clerk requires something more than ability to add up a column of figures or quote prices. The clerk must be intelligently informed about the various lines of goods that he is handling. He should read trade papers and keep his eyes open in the newspapers to get helpful information about his line.

The intelligent clerk gives a dependable impression as to what kind of goods are most durable and most satisfactory. He can also tell what kind of material is best suited to the purchaser's tastes, habits, manner of living and associations. A purchase made with the aid of such intelligence is far more satisfactory. Goods that just fit wear twice as long and are cheap at any price.

In a town like this the force of salespeople are of a permanent character. As few changes as possible are made, and the better positions are apt to be filled by promotions from the lower jobs in the same store. The proprietors give personal attention to the work of instructing clerks. This builds up a force of people who are capable of rendering a high degree of intelligent service, and of helping customers make purchases that will be permanently satisfactory.

This is the kind of thing that the customer misses when he goes away to buy in some distant city or sends to a retail order house. There is a lack of intelligent service, the sales forces are less permanent, less intelligent about their goods, and they make no particular effort to fit the purchase to the customer.

MILLERSBURG

HISTORY OF MILLERSBURG.

—At the time the writer came to Millersburg the citizenship of the town was passing from one period to another. A large number of the old citizens with their families had moved from here to various parts of the world and an influx of new citizens were rapidly taking their places. Prior to this the town had been noted largely for its aristocracy. Much of this had broken down some, had been relegated to the rear, while others had gone to various parts of the world to begin life anew. The new inhabitants, many of them, were not familiar with the atmosphere and environments which characterized a town like Millersburg, but they soon caught the fever of ambition, and with the experience of the citizenship of the past, were filled with that determination to bring this little country town into something greater than she had hitherto known.

Mr. C. W. Howard, who was one of our progressive citizens, and was residing here at the time the writer came upon the scene, was the first to lay a concrete sidewalk. Others soon caught the fever, and, in the following summer, workmen were busy taking up the old pavements and relaying in concrete. So nicely did this work progress that the Town Council passed an ordinance to the effect that all of the old pavements must be taken up on Main street, and relaid in brick or concrete. In order to induce the people to lay them in concrete the town, agreed to pay 25 per cent. of the cost, this to be deducted from taxes. This was soon followed by the opening of side streets, and investors soon found their way to Trigg avenue, and almost like magic this street was built up from end to end, there being a few squares of vacant lots in the center. The citizens soon went before the Legislature, and had Millersburg placed on the list of fifth-class cities, which entitled her to a Mayor and City Council.

Hon. Levy Trotter, now of Lexington, Ky., was the first Mayor of Millersburg. The race was a hot one, his opponent being W. D. McIntyre. Mayor Trotter was a good electioneer, and being somewhat of a ward politician, knew well how to control the uncertain voters. Ambitions began to rise higher, and a Commercial Club was organized, which, unfortunately, held but few meetings and was disbanded. The question of waterworks for a long time was in everybody's mind, and for a time it looked as though we were going to get them, but after employing a skilled engineer for the purpose of making estimates we found that, owing to the State laws, we could not float a bond issue for the amount of money necessary to build the waterworks. Coupled with the waterworks question was that of electric lights, which, however, was realized during the years of 1911-1912, and we now have one of the best light systems of any small city in Central Kentucky.

A few years ago Butler Addition, which is not a part of the town, but an outside suburb, was opened. Several nice residences have gone up. A little later another suburb, Judyville, was also opened, these both revolving, as it were, around one central part of Millersburg. In the past few years the town has placed Main street in first-class condition, until now it is as smooth as any boulevard. Both sides of Main street are paved in concrete or brick, from beginning to end, as is Vine street and Trigg avenue, with but few exceptions. After the spirit of progress had struck the town, we realized the necessity of doing what we could to protect property from losses by fire, hence the town ordered the building of a number of fire cisterns on all the streets. These have been increased. The town ordered a hand fire engine, which was operated successfully for a few years. This did not satisfy our people, and a few years later a steam engine was ordered. In the past two years the fire system has been still better equipped by the addition of another steam engine which now gives two in good working order, and also a chemical engine. There are sufficient ladders to ascend the heights of any building in town. While the fire department is a voluntary one the town provides them with coats and caps and every modern convenience.

The city is well equipped with telephone service, the Bourbon Home and the Cumberland both operating exchanges here. Shortly after the telephone systems began reaching out for the smaller town work, both of them started for Millersburg, the Cumberland being the first to erect its lines. The town was much wiser than many of our surrounding neighbors. When the Cumberland Telephone Company asked for the privilege of running their lines through Millersburg, the town granted this at once, but refused to grant them the exclusive franchise asked for, so that when the Home Company was organized later, and with their appeal, the franchise was also granted them.

The town was never in a healthier condition, morally, spiritually, physically or progressively. Millersburg is looking out and reaching out for every good thing that may come our way. We are not after anything else nor do we want anything else. Our citizenship is good and of a high standard, nothing else is welcome and nothing else will feel at home here very long. (To Be Continued.) (Other Millersburg on Page 8)

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS.

Give It When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, For Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. (adv)

NEWSPRINT PAPER TOO HIGH FOR ONE-CENT PAPERS

Alexander Smith, a paper manufacturer, addressing a newspaper conference, in Chicago, said that in his opinion the price of print paper never again would reach a point which would justify one-cent newspapers. He touched on the factors of increased cost of labor and materials which, he said, had affected the manufacture of paper.

A Southern Gentleman Makes a New Friend

I was real tickled today—I made a new friend. And now you bet you, he's some tickled, too.

You see, he is a mighty good fellow—son of a big planter—has bundles of money; can buy anything he wants. And he knows all about tobacco!

He was telling around that he would give a heap for a cigarette that just hit his smoke taste. So I had them wrap me up and I went to the rich planter man.

"Sir, I am a real cigarette," I said. "I am sure you'll like me. I have good blood in my veins. I am of fine Virginia and Carolina stock and was raised in a clean, wholesome home. I am a gentleman of quality—the Quality of the South."

So the planter's son tried me and he liked me, because

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood!

You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

Now my planter's son and I—we're real friends. He buys me regularly, and he tells everybody that you can't buy a better cigarette than SOVEREIGN at any price!

Why can't I be your friend, too? And, remember this—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.

MR. CAYWOOD ANNOUNCES FOR SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

I wish to announce myself a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Schools, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the primary of August 4.

A great many of you know me. I am determined, before many months have passed, that all of you shall. We can know only by personal contact. Those of you who do not know me, may I ask that you do not pledge your support to any one until I have made your acquaintance and you know something of my hopes and aspirations, something of my ambitions for Bourbon County?

Born in the mountains of Kentucky, being a cripple and reared on a farm, I received my early education at home, and in the public schools there.

I attended the Booneville Academy two years, afterwards two years at Sue Bennett Memorial School, then finished a bookkeeping course at Bryan and Stratton, of Louisville, and one year at Eastern Kentucky Normal.

In 1907 I taught my first school one mile of Booneville, in Owsley County. I afterwards taught successfully four more schools in that county, the last of which was in a graded school. I then went to Madison county, and taught three schools.

I moved to Bourbon county three years ago and have been living here ever since, teaching my first school in the county at Riddles Mills, next to the Palmer school, in which I am at the present time.

At the urgent request of friends and because of an earnest longing to see the educational interest of our county advance, I have decided to become a candidate for Superintendent.

There is within me a burning desire to see the schools of this county measure up to, yes, more than that, to surpass those of any county in this State and indeed, those of any other State. Let us go forward.

The schools I have taught attest my zeal in my work. I call you to witness, friends, that into them I have put my whole life. I shall not do less for my county. I cannot do more. So far as it is within my power I shall give to every interest of the schools my personal attention. The purchasing of fuel, furnishings and supplies, the letting of bids for buildings and repairs—everything—shall be done with an eye single to your interest as God makes me see it. Each year shall have higher ideals—must see some improvements—some progress made.

Fellow citizens, we have done much—we have gone forward. But there is more to be done. We must press on. In accomplishment of these things, I pledge you every ounce of strength I possess, whatever ability is mine. In the forward march make me your leader.

Read what Daisy Baker's Mother says about Home-Made Bread, and how much she can save on her household expenses.

Look at this Bread!

If you could only actually see it, smell it and taste it!

Yes, I baked it myself. It's very little trouble and it's lots better than I can buy.

Then too, it means a big saving. I am cutting down on my meat bills because the family is eating so much more bread. They seem to like it better than the more expensive foods.

Even if I were not saving on my other bills, I am still saving almost half on the bread itself.

You can do the same thing. It's not hard. All you need is a good recipe and a good flour.

The flour that I use is wonderfully easy to work with. It's made in Ohio—right in the Miami Valley where the soft winter wheat has an unusual quality on account of the rich limestone soil. It's good for everything, and it gives a most delicious nutty flavor to your baking. Take my advice and try

MOVEMENT FOR BETTER MAIL SERVICE

A movement, which, if it comes to a successful conclusion, will mean much to the merchants and citizens generally, of Millersburg, Carlisle and Maysville, has been started in Carlisle, having for its ultimate object a change in the mail service schedule on the Louisville & Nashville between Paris and those points.

The movement is being fostered and promoted by Postmaster A. B. Tilton, of Carlisle, who is making an effort to have all mail northbound carried on the noon train after March 1. The southbound mail, instead of being carried on the 2:18 train, would be carried on the train leaving Carlisle at 5:00 p. m., thus making closer connection for Millersburg and Paris.

Under the present system, the afternoon mail for Paris, which leaves Maysville, Carlisle and Millersburg early in the afternoon, is carried to Paris and remains here, the mail destined for Lexington being held here three hours, reaching there about 6:30 o'clock. Under the new arrangement, mail for Paris and Lexington will get to its destination ahead of the old schedule time. The morning schedule between Paris and Millersburg also needs looking after, as the news letter from our Millersburg correspondent, which ought to reach us on the first morning train, is often carried by, and does not come back until late in the afternoon, often too late to secure publication.

BUILDINGS ON OLD
FAIR GROUNDS SOLD

The buildings on the old Bourbon County Fair Grounds near Paris, which property was recently purchased by Messrs. George W. Wilder, Henry S. Caywood and Edward H. Gorey, of Paris, were sold at public auction Saturday, Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes officiating.

The amphitheatre was purchased by Mr. George Williams Clay for $835. The other buildings comprising five horse stables, three cattle barns, two hog houses, one sheep barn, one kitchen, and four small ticket offices were sold to Paris parties for an aggregate of $1,400. The purchasers are obliged to remove the buildings at the earliest possible moment.

Messrs. Wilder, Caywood & Gorey propose to subdivide the grounds into several tracts, suitable for building homes, and have christened it "Wildwood." This will be one of the most attractive suburban additions to Paris yet put on the market.

FARMER DIES SUDDENLY.

Shortly after returning from Shawhan with a load of coal, Mr. Richard T. Edwards, a well-known farmer, dropped dead in the yard at his home near Lair. Death was attributed to organic heart trouble.

Mr. Edwards is survived by his second wife, formerly Miss Mary Kearns, of Pointexter; one daughter, Mrs. Nat Lawrence, and four sons, Messrs. Newton, George, Joe and John Edwards. The funeral was held in Battle Grove Cemetery, at Cynthia, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. Jos. D. Armistead.

HOUSEBREAKERS ARE HELD TO THE GRAND JURY.

George Cravens and Ella Cravens, white, were tried in Police Court, Friday, before Judge E. B. January, on a charge of housebreaking and burglary, and held over to answer at the next meeting of the grand jury in the Bourbon Circuit Court. Charles Troxle, giving his residence as Lexington, and implicated on the same charge with the Cravens, was not tried, but will probably be held as a witness against the pair.

Cravens and the woman, who alleged she was his wife, were arrested on a charge of breaking into the plant of the Paris Gas & Electric Light Company and stealing a large lot of copper wire, brass, lead, etc., which was afterward recovered from a junk dealer in Georgetown, where it had been disposed of by the thieves. Troxle confessed, implicating the Cravens. In default of bail the Cravens were committed to the care of Jailor Jos. Farris.

BARN BURNED.

A large stock and tobacco barn belonging to Mr. John R. Long, a prominent farmer of near Carlisle, was destroyed by fire about six o'clock Friday morning. A large crop of tobacco, lot of farming implements, several head of stock, including a valuable jack and jennet and a colt stallion, went up in the flames. Mr. Long was ill at his home near Hooktown, at the time and was not told of his loss until some time after. He is the father of Mr. Carl Long, of this county. The loss on the barn and its contents amounted to several thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance.

THOUGHT STEAM WAS SMOKE.

Warm air from the cellar of the building at the corner of Main and Seventh streets, occupied by C. S. Goldstein's department store, coming in contact with the outer frigid air Friday night, bore such close resemblance to smoke, suggesting the possibility of a dreaded cellar fire, that some passer-by turned in an alarm from Box 18. The department responded and upon investigation discovered the cause of the trouble.

Tobacco cotton that has been placed to dry behind a kitchen range at the home of Mr. H. Clay Hutchcraft, Friday, caught fire causing an alarm from Box 31. The blaze set fire to the wainscoting and burned a hole in the roof. The blaze was extinguished by the department, with a small property loss.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT AFFIRMED.

The judgment in favor of Mr. Harry L. Mitchell against the L. & N. Railroad Company has been affirmed by the Court of Appeals. Mr. Mitchell was hurt in an accident in the yards of the company in Paris about two years ago while he was in charge of a train as conductor, with which an engine coming from Winchester collided. Through his attorneys, Talbott & Whitley and Robt. B. Franklin, he brought suit in the Bourbon Circuit Court and recovered a verdict for $20,000.00, which, with interest and costs, now amounts to about $25,000.00.

FORMER PARIS PASTOR
STRICKEN BY PARALYSIS

A message to friends in this city from Los Angeles, California, stated that Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, formerly pastor of the Paris Methodist church, and also of the churches at Carlisle, Millersburg, and at other points in the Kentucky Conference, had suffered a stroke of paralysis at the home of his daughter, in that city, and that he was in a critical condition. The stroke had deprived him of the power of speech, and he was almost helpless. This is distressing news to the many friends of this popular and able divine, who knew and highly esteemed him during his residence here.

MME. SARAH BERNHARDT AT LEXINGTON OPERA HOUSE.

On Friday, February 9, at the Lexington Opera House the last appearance is announced of the world's greatest artist, Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, fresh from new triumphs at the Empire Theatre, New York City, where for several weeks, acting as high as ten performances a week, she electrified the big city, and the marvel of it all is the entire indifference this terrible strain seems to have had upon her strength and activity, she appearing in no less than four plays at each performance.

Mme. Bernhardt will be accompanied by her own special company from the theatre, Sarah Bernhardt, Paris, and a singular coincidence is, that her leading man this season, Jean Angelo, who received special permission from the French Government to make the tour with Madame, is none other than the son of that Angelo who was her leading man when she first came to this country in 1880.

Each play to be presented will be embellished by the properties, scenery and costumes from her Paris theatre. The plays to be given are: "Cleopatra," "From the Stage to the Field of Honor," "Rosalie," and "Camille."

The sale of seats will open Wednesday morning, February 7, at the Ben Ali Theatre. The prices will be: Lower floor $2 and $2.50, balcony $1, $1.50 and $2. Orders sent for seats to Manager Scott if accompanied by a remittance and self-addressed envelope will receive prompt attention. (adv)

WAGON AND CAR COLLIDE.

Mr. George Daniel, of Paris, is confined to his home at Nineteenth and Main streets, suffering from injuries received in a collision between his wagon and the city car of the Interurban line.

Mr. Daniel was driving a two-horse wagon, returning from the Independent Tobacco Warehouse, where he had been delivering a load of tobacco, when a collision occurred between the wagon and the car. The wagon was wrecked, Mr. Daniel being thrown to the ground, receiving serious injuries. The horses and the city car escaped without injury. Mr. Daniel was removed to his home, where he received medical attention.

APPOINTED DELEGATES.

Mrs. Roy Clendenin and Miss Clara Bacon, of Paris, were appointed as delegates and alternate, respectively, to represent the Progressive Culture Club of Paris, at the District Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs, at Eminence to-day.

A WAY TO CHEAT THE PLUMBER

Why pay plumbing bills? Burn gas through the night and your water pipes won't freeze up. You will be comfortable, too. At the rate which the consumers of Paris get gas, it is cheaper to burn the fuel through the night and save freezing, than it is to pay the plumber $4.00 or $5.00 for replacing the pipes, as the average gas bill won't exceed that amount. Nearly every wise person now uses the cheapest and best fuel to be had—natural gas. No dirt, coal soot, kindling, ashes, and other worries to contend with when you use gas. Try it once and you will be a regular consumer.

TIME TO CALL A HALT.

When thieves can with impunity, break in a place and carry off a lot of valuable stuff, dispose of it to junk dealers without question as to where they got it, it seems to us that it is time to call a halt. It seems to be the easiest thing in the world now for a thief to get away with his ill-gotten stuff by disposing of it to the junk dealers. THE NEWS refers to junk dealers in general, for they, as a class, are not as particular as they might be. While we would not openly accuse them of being receivers of stolen goods, yet it seems that they do not exercise the right caution and carefulness in purchasing goods from everyone. Recent happenings justify this view of the matter.

We believe, as do many others, with whom we have discussed the subject, that junk dealers should be required to keep a record of all goods in their line, with a description of the material; a description of party selling it; the date; and a complete memorandum of the circumstances, open at all times to inspection of the city or county authorities just as pawnbrokers are required to do in the large cities. This information might be of inestimable value to the authorities in tracing down burglaries and petty thieves and go a long way toward suppressing this form of crime. The City Council in each town where junk dealers operate should pass an ordinance compelling the junk men to keep such a record in complete shape, for the purposes set forth above.

BELOVED CITIZEN TO CELEBRATE NINETIETH BIRTHDAY.

Ninety years ago to-day, Mr. Geo. W. Davis, one of the most beloved citizens of Paris, first saw the light of day, his advent on earth happening on February 6, 1828. It is given to few men to attain to such a ripe old age, and retain the love, esteem and respect of his fellow-men, yet such a man is George W. Davis, whose long life has been one grand testimonial to the virtues and blessings of right living. His is a record of probity, honesty and the faithful discharge of every obligation imposed upon him in his every walk of life. Living, he is an example worthy of emulation by all who would set a high mark as their ideal in business and social life. All honor to a man such as George W. Davis!

DOCTORS BUSY WITH THE "GRIPPE BUG."

The "grippe bug" is certainly busy in Paris these days. The recent warm spell, followed by the cold wave and a still colder wave, has given half the people of Paris deep colds, which have developed into grippe. Physicians have been kept busy day and night answering calls. It is said there are more cases of grippe in Paris and Bourbon county just at this particular time than for many years past.

me, Cleveland, used to feel. Here is the story in his own words:

"The last year was a trying one for me. My health had been steadily on the down grade. Often it would be 1 or 2 o'clock before I could go to sleep. I got up in the morning almost as tired as when I went to bed.

"During the day my stomach bothered me. After eating I had a heavy, bloated feeling. I was tired all the time and didn't have any ambition. My nerves were upset. My body ached. At times my feet were so sore I could hardly bear my weight upon them.

"I couldn't get relief. Finally I tried Tanlac and right then and there I began to get better. My worries are all over now. I go to bed and never wake up until morning. My aches have left me. I have a splendid appetite and am able to satisfy it, too, no food disagrees with my stomach.

"I am glad to say a good word for Tanlac and honestly believe that it will do for other people what it has done for me."

SISTER EUPHRASIA RETIRES TO NAZARETH FOR REST

Sister Euphrasia, founder of St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, and for forty years Superior of the institution, has gone to Nazareth, where she will take a much needed rest and enjoy the quiet home from which she went to her first mission of charity fifty-two years ago. Two years ago Sister Euphrasia celebrated the golden anniversary of her vows, and the event was made the occasion for congratulations from the public and was observed with festivities at the hospital in which men and women of all creeds and classes united.

In 1865 Sister Euphrasia, during the small pox epidemic that followed the Civil War, at the head of a band of nurses in Louisville, succeeded in stamping out the plague there. Afterward she was in charge of St. Joseph's hospital in Louisville for a time, but later in 1875 came to Lexington, and established St. Joseph's Hospital.

Before taking her vows, she was Miss Stafford, a member of a wealthy family in Pittsburgh, Pa., and her introduction to Kentucky was as a girl, when she entered school at Nazareth. She took the final vows as a Sister of Charity, in 1864. She is eighty-seven years of age.

She will be succeeded at St. Joseph's by Sister Mary John, to whom the duties of the office were given several months ago.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS.

Tells How to Loosen a Tender Corn or Callous So It Lifts Out Without Pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called Freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callous the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callous, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callous without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of Freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callous. If your druggist hasn't any Freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you. (adv)

SURGERY SAVES MAN WITH A BROKEN BACK.

A man with a broken back used to be considered as good as dead. But not to-day. Doctors at Kings County Hospital, in New York, whittled away four inches of Caspian Trascoma's backbone, broken in an automobile smashup and he is recovering. They also untwisted his spinal cord, snarled into an "S." Trascoma can wiggle his toes now and is rapidly recovering. The doctors did the same thing for Miss Jessie Smith.

HOW TO TRAP MUSKRATS

In the December Farm and Fireside a writer says about trapping muskrats:

"When trapping in deep water—that is, when the entrance of the house or den is situated in such a way that it is impossible to make an ordinary set—inclose a board at an angle of 35 degrees, sticking one end in the mud and supporting the other with stakes. Just below the surface of the water arrange two nails so as to hold the trap. On the part of the board extending out of the water arrange some decoy. The animals in climbing the board will encounter the trap and get caught if the set is made properly.

"Stake a pumpkin or head of cabbage in shallow water, surrounding it with several traps. Often several fur bearers may be taken in a single evening with a set of this kind."

Approximately 10,390 acres of denuded lands within the National Forests were reforested in the fiscal year 1916. The total number of trees planted was 6,146,637, while 8,289 pounds of tree seed were sown.

SEVERE COLD QUICKLY CURED.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Waterbury, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and I will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere. (Feb-adv)

An Arkansas man was recently bitten by a mule with fatal results. This merely shows that the mule is dangerous at both ends.

The first carload of mules to be sold by weight in this county was shipped from this city to Atlanta, Ga., recently. There were twenty-six in the consignment and they were sold by Willis Burdette, the well known New Market farmer, to a representative of Hudson & Son, Southern mule dealers. The twenty-six mules averaged 993 pounds and totaled 25,946 pounds. The price received was 20 cents per pound, or $5,189.60, the mules averaging $199.60 per head.

DO YOU HAVE DIZZY SPELLS?

It's important to Learn the Cause, As Many Paris People Have.

Dizziness is never a disease of itself—it's only a symptom of some deeper-seated trouble. Much dizziness is caused by disordered kidneys failing to filter all the poisons from the blood. These poisons attack the nerves and dizziness results. If you are subject to dizziness, there is good reason to suspect your kidneys, and if you suffer backache, headache, and irregular kidney action, you have further proof. Many Paris people have learned the value of Doan's Kidney Pills in just such cases. Read this Paris resident's statement:

Mrs. J. W. Markland, 326 Eighth street, Paris, says: "Some few years ago, I suffered severely with kidney complaint and sometimes was in a serious condition. I have had a constant, dull ache across the small of my back and I have had terrible dizzy spells at times. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for this trouble and they have helped me more than anything else, always relieving me of the complaint." Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Markland had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

CONSTIPATION MAKES YOU DULL

That draggy, listless, oppressed feeling generally results from constipation. The intestines are clogged and the blood becomes poisoned. Relieve this condition at once with Dr. King's New Life Pills; this gentle, non-gripping laxative is quickly effective. A dose at bedtime will make you feel brighter in the morning. Get a bottle to-day at your Druggist, 25c. (Feb-adv)

RED RABBIT CLIMBS TREES LIKE A SQUIRREL

J. W. Merrick, of near Cadiz, Ky., recently caught near his home a red rabbit, which he exhibited at Cadiz. It is about the size of an ordinary rabbit, with bright red eyes. Mr. Merrick says it can climb a tree like a squirrel.

KING WINTER INTERFERED.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—Snowstorms have brought battles on the various fronts almost to a standstill. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, Germans announce that they have increased the number of prisoners captured in Galicia to 2,700 men, and in France have carried out bold air engagements successfully. The great engagement launched in Riga is held in check by the weather.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL!

An eastern newspaper house is sending out word to the printers that a double raise will soon be made in the already unreasonable price of print paper. And this is to inform our women readers that we have on hand a big reserve supply of exchanges which we continue to sell for the old price of 5 cents per bundle. Lay in a supply now. They will soon be a really classy thing to use instead of a table cloth when company comes, and the women who can have real newspaper print on her cupboard shelves will be the envy of all her neighbors.—Toronto (Kansas) Republican.

THE BEST RECOMMENDATION.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. MILLERSBURG

—Miss Margaret B. Clarke returned Thursday, after a protracted visit to friends in Louisville.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bascom and little daughter, Sue, visited friends at Owensville, Wednesday.

—Mrs. E. S. Barton and little son, James Earle, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Overley, at Flemingsburg.

—Mr. K. A. Burroughs and sister, Miss Nannie Burroughs, attended the funeral of a relative at Mt. Sterling, Wednesday.

—Mrs. Bailes Dehelle left Friday for her home at Ewing after a several days' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Courtney.

—Elder Alex Saunders moved Monday to the Mitchell house at Paris. He has been boarding for several months with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bruce.

—Mr. M. J. Fanning, of the Anti-Saloon League, delivered a lecture at the Methodist church on State Wide prohibition Thursday evening. A good audience was present notwithstanding the inclement weather. This is Mr. Fanning's third appearance in our midst. His address was good.

—Miss Dorothy Peed arrived Saturday night from Birmingham, Ala. Miss Peed occupied the chair in one of the graded schools of that city, and was compelled to resign her position temporarily on account of ill health. She underwent an operation last fall for appendicitis, and as soon as she was able resumed her duties without taking any rest. The strain has proven too much for her and she will not take up school work again until next fall.

—Quite a number of ladies representing the different churches of the town met at the home of Mrs. W. M. Miller, Monday afternoon, and perfected a temporary organization for the establishment of a civic league, the purpose of which is the improvement of the town. Mrs. W. M. Miller was elected President pro tem. A meeting was held at the city school at 2:30 o'clock on Monday. Quite a number of our ladies were present, notwithstanding the severe weather. Mrs. Oakford Hinton and Miss Minaker, of Paris, were present, and organized the body as a permanent order.

—The stock and tobacco barn of Mr. J. R. Long was destroyed by fire about 7 p. m. Thursday, and with its contents, was an entire loss. The barn contained the entire crop of tobacco, valuable stallion, jack and jennet, and all his farming utensils. The loss is estimated at about five thousand dollars, with only $500 insurance on the barn. They had stripped tobacco in the stripping room during the day by a comfortable fire. After they were through in the evening Mr. Long put the fire out himself, and in order to make sure he sent a colored man to the barn, after he had gone to the house, to see that the fire was out. No cause can be assigned for the fire, and it is believed by some to be the work of an incendiary. Friday evening about the same hour, the home of Charlie Turner, colored, near the railroad, with its contents, was destroyed by fire, it having originated from the overheating of a hot air stove, which burst. Owing to the severe weather, and the scarcity of water in the neighborhood the building could not be saved. A subscription was taken on Saturday for the relief of the stricken family.

THE GROUND HOG WISE?

Whether there shall be six weeks more of bad weather was determined Friday by the "Ground Hog" seeing his shadow. If the old-time superstition be true, then we are in for six weeks more of all kinds of weather.

The "Ground Hog," according to many who are confident that his custom has the effect of prescribing the weather for six weeks more, emerged from his winter home Friday sometime during the day, and saw his shadow. Some declare he spends the entire day in the open, while others contend that the time for his appearance on the stage is between twelve and one o'clock. In either event his Hogship undoubtedly saw his shadow, and went in for another long stay. The weather of the following day certainly gave some strength to the "ground hog's" claim as a reliable weather prophet.

KENTUCKY SHEEP AFFECTED BY STRANGE MALADY

Postmortems made by the veterinary department, Kentucky Experiment Station, at Lexington, have proven that the malady which has carried off many hundreds of Kentucky sheep within the last ten days is nodular disease, according to the announcement. Farmers in large numbers who have reported losses feared that a mysterious malady was abroad. The blizzard, with consequent restricted exercise, and dry feed, is held to be merely a secondary cause. The disease is said to be preventable, but not curable. Its ravages are greatest in the lambing season, when resistance is low, and the mortality is running in this section as high as fifteen per cent. With sheep at the highest prices in history the loss already has been great. Nodular disease made its appearance in Kentucky only a few years ago.

ROLL OF HONOR AT THE SHAWHAN SCHOOL.

The roll of honor for the fifth month for the Shawhan School, as reported by Mrs. Ada Fishback, the teacher, is as follows: Grade IV—Homer J. Wilson, Edna E. Wilson, Hallie Howard, Hazel Crombie. Grade VI—Gladys Farmer and Margaret Longbottom. Grade VIII—Mattie McClure and Anna David. All the pupils made a general average of 90 per cent.

DEATHS.

WALTON.

Mr. W. M. Walton, farmer, aged sixty-five, died at his home on the Greenwich pike, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, of pneumonia. Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ella Smart, Mrs. Mollie Patterson and Mrs. Nettie Stewart, and two sons, Messrs. Charles and Thomas Walton. The funeral arrangements had not been completed as THE NEWS went to press last night.

NELSON.

Mr. Frank Nelson, aged sixty-nine, died at his home on Massie avenue, in this city, Saturday midnight, after a short illness. His death was attributed to organic heart trouble, as he had been ill but a short time. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Horace Nelson, of Paris, James Nelson, of Batavia, Ohio, and Lloyd Nelson, of Winchester; two daughters, Miss Melissa Nelson and Mrs. Josie Fry, of Paris.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence on Massie Avenue at ten o'clock this (Tuesday) morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. O. R. Mangum, pastor of the Paris Baptist church. The interment will follow in the Paris Cemetery.

FLETCHER.

—Mrs. Sue Fletcher, wife of Mr. P. W. Fletcher, of Lexington, died at four o'clock Sunday morning at the Ivanhoe Apartments, Hampton Court, in Lexington, after a short illness.

Mrs. Fletcher before her marriage was Miss Sue Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Patterson, of Harrison county. She was a frequent visitor in Paris, where she was always welcomed in social circles for her charming personality and gracious manners.

Mrs. Fletcher is survived by her mother, Mrs. Agnes C. Patterson; one sister, Mrs. D. L. Cobb, of Richmond, and one brother, Mr. Higgins Patterson, of Harrison county.

The funeral will take place in Battle Grove Cemetery, in Cynthia, at eleven o'clock this (Tuesday) morning, the funeral party leaving the family home in Lexington in automobiles at nine o'clock.

SNYDER.

—Mr. John C. Snyder, aged forty-one, a well-known paper hanger and decorator, who has made his home in Paris for the past fifteen years, where he was in the employ of Mr. S. E. Borland, and others in his line, died at his home in Thornton Division at noon yesterday, after a long illness of tuberculosis.

Mr. Snyder was a native of Lexington, where he served his apprenticeship. He came to Paris about fifteen years ago and worked at his trade. He went into business for himself a few years ago, but, his health failing, he became identified with several traveling carnival organizations, in hopes that the change of air and surroundings would restore him to health. Several weeks ago he lost his voice entirely, due to the ravages of the disease which was preying upon him.

Mr. Snyder is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ida Willett, of this city; his mother, Mrs. Ruth S. Snyder, of Lexington; four brothers, Messrs. Ernest, Harry, George and Charles Snyder, all of Lexington, and two sisters, Miss Harriet Snyder and Mrs. W. C. Frederickson, of Lexington.

The funeral will take place at the Methodist church, in this city, at two o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. W. O. Sadler, the pastor. The interment will follow in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be George Browner, James T. Kiser, Wm. C. Willett, Harry Snyder, Charles Snyder and George Snyder.

FEEDING EWES IN WINTER.

Large lamb losses are due to improper care of ewes previous to lambing. The feeding practice followed at the Pennsylvania State College is as follows:

Ewes are bred during September and October, insuring February and March lambs. The latter part of November ewes are taken off pasture and placed in winter quarters. During the first month they receive as much clover or alfalfa hay as they will consume with two and one-half to three pounds of corn silage or roots daily to each animal, in addition to hay. About Jan. 1 ewes receive a limited grain ration varying from one-fourth to one-half pound per day, depending on their condition.

Ewes receiving a grain ration before lambing always produce more milk for lambs. The grain mixture used at State College farm consists of five parts of shelled corn, three parts of oats, two parts of wheat bran and one part of oatmeal.

After lambs are born the ewe will not consume as much roughage feed. More grain is then necessary to give a milk flow sufficient for the best growth of the lamb. The grain mixture should be increased, therefore, one-half pound or more daily per ewe, depending on her condition and also upon the number of lambs she is raising.

Next to proper feeding, exercise is considered the most important factor in keeping ewes in good condition for lambing. Exercise lots should be well drained to prevent sore feet. It is well to allow ewes to range on pasture during the winter, since exercise gives strength and enables them to produce lambs with less effort and of a stronger, more vigorous type.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

There will only be three holidays in this short month of February—St. Valentine's Day, Lincoln's birthday and Washington's birthday. As the first-named comes on Sunday, the hard-working clerical forces of the post-office and banks will get a double holiday; the second-named, Lincoln's birthday, comes on the following Monday, February 12, and the birthday of "George Wash" comes on Thursday, February 22, when everybody save the newspaper people can take a day off and help celebrate.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Three important real estate deals were consummated last week through the agency of the Paris Realty Co. Mr. R. C. Linville sold to Mr. David Crombie, of the Shawhan vicinity, his farm of 98 acres, located near Taylorsville, in Spencer county, for a price not given out. Mr. Crombie will take possession of the property in March. They also sold for Mr. J. T. Wigginton, 197 acres of land near Taylorsville, in Spencer county, to L. H. Insko & Son, of Ewington, at a private price.

Through the Realty Company, Mr. W. H. Anderson, of Paris, Superintendent of this division of the Louisville & Nashville, purchased for his niece, Miss Josie Alexander, formerly of Paris, now attending college in Chicago, the two-story brick business house on Main street, occupied by The Sweet Shop. The price paid was not made public. The property was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey, of Lexington, and has been long known as the Singer property. The Sweet Shop, under the auspices of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keller, will remain in the house, they having secured a lease on it.

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold at the court house door in Paris yesterday for the Paris Realty Co., a house and fifty acres of ground, located on the Paris and Clintonville pike, belonging to Mrs. Wm. Neal, to John Cain, of Paris, for $3,000.

At the same time and place Auctioneer Kenney sold for Master Commissioner Oscar T. Hinton a house and lot in North Middletown, belonging to the Clarke heirs, to Henry S. Caywood, for $280.

Mr. T. Strother Scott, of Winchester, agent for L. E. Swetnam, of Bourbon county, sold the latter's farm of 117½ acres, near North Middletown, to Jas. Munday, of Winchester, for $140 an acre. This is one of the best improved farms in the county. Mr. Munday will rent the farm and remain in Winchester.

The Bruce Miller farm of 122 acres, near Paris, will be sold at auction Thursday, Feb. 8. See descriptive advertisement on page 2 of The Kentuckian-Citizen.

PERJURY FEAR STOPS ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE.

In the case of Thomas Rison and Blanche Taylor, both of Woodford county, love's young dream came near being as completely shattered as a Charlie Chaplin comedy pie. After many fears and vicissitudes love finally found a way and the couple were united in marriage by Justice Hearn, in Lexington.

Rison, who is a young farmer residing near the Fayette-Woodford line, and his bride-to-be, Miss Taylor, both being from the same neighborhood, came to Lexington, Thursday, and made the usual application to the County Clerk for a marriage license. The Clerk of the County Court, suspecting something wrong, refused their license because he did not believe the girl was of the legal marrying age. Leaving Lexington they came on to Paris where application was made to County Clerk Paton, who, upon the girl swearing to the required affidavit as to her age, issued the license.

In the meantime, Mr. and Mrs. Miffred Taylor, who live on the Lewis Johnson place near Midway, came to Lexington to appeal to Chief of Police Reagan for help in finding the girl, who, they asserted, had run away from home, and not being of age, they would not give their consent to her marriage. Upon testimony it was learned that the marriage license had been obtained in Paris upon affidavit of the girl that she was of age. This would have implicated her on a charge of perjury if any attempt had been made to have the marriage contract broken, so that marriage of the couple was not interfered with—and they were married and may live happily ever afterward!

OIL FROM FRUIT STONES.

Germany is preparing to take steps toward relieving her shortage of oils and fruits by extracting an oil from the kernels of fruit-stones, such as the pits of the plum and the cherry, both of which grow freely there. The pits are pooled in a calcium chloride solution, which separates the kernel from its shell. The oil is expressed from the kernels. The chief difficulty lies in the fact that the kernels of such fruits, especially the peach, contain minute quantities of hydrocyanic acid sometimes called oil of bitter almonds. This is extremely poisonous, but special methods have resulted in its presence being reduced to a mere negligible trace, according to the reports.

KENTUCKY BIRTHPLACE OF MANY STATESMEN.

Few persons either in or out of Kentucky, probably know that that State enjoys the distinction of having furnished to the country fourteen Speakers of the House of Representatives, thirty-five Governors of different States, fourteen cabinet officers, three vice-presidents and to the Supreme Court three Justices in addition to those now sitting. The figures were furnished in an address recently by Congressman David H. Kinchloe, of the Second Kentucky district, to the members of the Kentucky Society of Washington, D. C.

FEDERAL REPORT ON PAPER PROBE HELD UP.

The Federal Trade Commission's report on its print paper investigation, although virtually completed, probably will be held up for some days, it was learned, until further inquiry is made concerning the effects of a Canadian government order fixing maximum news print prices in Canada. A meeting announced for Chicago between manufacturers and publishers also may bring developments that will have a bearing on the report.

BIRTHS.

—In Evansville, Ind., to the wife of Eld. Wm. E. Sweeney, formerly of Paris, a daughter; first child.

MATRIMONIAL.

HENSON—GILLISPIE. County Clerk Pearce Paton issued a marriage license Saturday to Mr. Nelson Gillispie and Mrs. Mollie Henson, both of the North Middletown vicinity. The couple were married in the court house by County Judge C. A. McMillan.

FROM THE WILD AND THE WOOLLY WEST:

In a letter to a member of THE NEWS staff, Mr. James B. Fee, formerly of Paris, now manager of a big ranch near Merriam, Kansas, says: "At the rate the wind has been blowing out here for the past two days, Paris' new skyscraper, the First National Bank building, would tumble down like a house of cards. The wind has kept up a steady velocity of 65 miles an hour and still going. The temperature has ranged from 15 to 20 degrees below zero. That's not cold (for Kansas). We have our own oil well and gas well and also have steam heat in the ranch mansion, so we manage to keep comfortable."

"While in Kansas City last week I met the two young Link boys, Tom and Robert, lately of Paris, and took them out on the Kansas ranch with me for a day's visit. They certainly did enjoy themselves, and are coming back to go on a wolf and rabbit drive that is to take place in the next week or so. The Link boys are doing fine in Kansas City. They are in the auto supply business. Robert Link is to be transferred soon to Louisville, Ky., as manager of a branch of the Times Square Auto Supply Co. He is certainly making good."

Mr. Fee enclosed a number of kodak views of interesting scenes on the big ranch, of which he is general manager.

FORMER BOURBON COUPLE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Watt M. Gay, former Bourbon county people, celebrated the golden wedding anniversary at Winchester recently. Mr. Gay is now eighty-one years of age and his wife seventy-eight. They were married in Bourbon county fifty years ago. Only two persons are now living who attended the wedding. They are Mrs. Thomas Goff, of North Middletown, this county, and Mrs. Thomas Bradley, of Winchester. Mr. and Mrs. Gay are both remarkably well preserved. Elder J. W. Harding, of Winchester, who performed the ceremony, is the only man now living in Winchester who was a resident of the city at that time.
